Marians Walk for a Cause

This year marks the 21st year of Marian College, Marian Health Careers Center, and for the first time ever, the students, administrators, faculty, and staff celebrated it with a fundraiser to support cancer research.

On February 11th, the Marian College community convened at the Charlie Turner Trail in Griffith Park for a 3-mile walk. Everyone was in high spirits enjoying the sights and the crisp February air. Participants purchased t-shirts and proceeds were donated to a local cancer foundation.

At the end of the walk, refreshments were served and the participants left with a feeling of great achievement and a renewed sense of community. 🍷

How Do You Tackle Your Work?

By: Edgar A. Guest, 1881-1959

How do you tackle your work each day?
Are you scared of the job you find?
Do you grapple the task that comes your way
With a confident, easy mind?

Do you stand right up to the work ahead
Or fearfully pause to view it?
Do you start to toil with a sense of dread
Or feel that you're going to do it?

You can do as much as you think you can,
But you'll never accomplish more;
If you're afraid of yourself, young man,
There's little for you in store.

For failure comes from the inside first,
It's there if we only knew it,
And you can win, though you face the worst,
If you feel that you're going to do it.

Success! It's found in the soul of you,
And not in the realm of luck!
The world will furnish the work to do,
But you must provide the pluck.

You can do whatever you think you can,
It's all in the way you view it.
It's all in the start you make, young man:
You must feel that you're going to do it.

How do you tackle your work each day?
With confidence clear, or dread?
What to yourself do you stop and say
When a new task lies ahead?

What is the thought that is in your mind?
Is fear ever running through it?
If so, just tackle the next you find
By thinking you're going to do it. ♣
